Description:
This database is an index to individuals enumerated in the 1860 United States Federal Census, the Eighth Census of the United States. Census takers recorded many details including each person's name, age as of the census day, sex, color; birthplace, occupation of males over age fifteen, and more. No relationships were shown between members of a household. Additionally, the names of those listed on the population schedule are linked to actual images of the 1860 Federal Census. Learn more...

my great great grandfather

William Young was a resident of PA in the year 1800. A more specific location is not known. Nor is it known whether they came directly from PA to Crawford Co. Ohio or whether he is the William who was a taxpayer in Fairfield Co., Hocking Twps. in 1806; Muskingum Co in 1816 and Pickaway in 1816. However, about 1820 William and his wife Mary and their family had settled in Crawford Co., Whitestone Twps. in section 5. They were the parents of ten children 5 boys & 5 girls. By the time they arrived in Crawford Co. at least Jr. & Sr. Jacob & George were young men. By 1830 were also taxpayers on 160 acres each. Their other two sons were Michael and William. Their daughters were Elizabeth who married George Black; Polly who possibly never married; Barbara who married Jacob Shaffer; a daughter, name unknown who married a Mr. Burns and was probably deceased by the time her father made his will in 1839. The Burns had two children who were remembered in their grandfathers will with 80 acres of land located in Henry Co., OH. Their names were Mary (Burns) Fashbaugh and William Burns.

first Mishael Beadle occupied the north forty of their first eighty-acre tract, and lived in a cabin which stood on the lot now owned by Mr. Silas Bowers, on West Mansfield street. David Beadle and his son David, aged about seventeen, occupied the south forty acres, and resided in a cabin situated a short distance southwest of the present end of Warren street. The Beadles did not remain in Crawford County, but, several years after they came into possession of this land, sold out to Samuel Myers and moved West." During the brief period these families resided in Crawford County, they occupied several different log cabins. Mrs. Rogers reports that at one time Mishael resided over the river a little south of where Joe Henry lives at the present time; old David Beadle then lived in the cabin formerly occupied by his son Mishael, and John Ensley over the river near Mishael. During the summer of 1822, Daniel, the little son of Mishael Beadle, died; this is the first death of which any satisfactory proof can be obtained that occurred in Bucyrus Township. The little fellow was buried on Norton's land; the exact site of this first burying-ground is the lot now owned by Hiram Fisher, at the corner of Walnut street and the Middletown Road. During the winter of 1822–23, Clarinda Beadle married a man some seven years older than herself; David Beadle was also married shortly after this, but did not live with his wife very long. Mishael Beadle also entered the Pettitt place now owned by Lorin Converse, which he resided on for several years, and John Ensley afterward located east of this on what was afterward known as the Minich estate. The entire Beadle family was of a restless, roving disposition; they spent considerable time hunting, and disliked hard labor. Samuel Myers, who purchased from them the eighty acres they first entered, at $6 per acre, reports that only eight or ten acres of the land had been cleared, notwithstanding it had been owned by the Beadle family for some six or eight years. The Beadles claimed to be Quakers, and the old man adopted the dress and language of this sect, but was never an honor to the Friends. It is related that he visited Zanesville for the purpose of buying a plow; the store-keeper did not wish to sell plows on credit so far from home, but Beadle talked so honestly that the plow-dealer finally consented. When the old fellow returned to Bucyrus, he made his boasts that his broad-brimmed hat had secured a fine plow; he never paid for this agricultural implement, and several years after he moved West, the Zanesville merchant visited Bucyrus for the purpose of collecting this bad debt; as he never succeeded, it is likely he never, after this experience with Beadle, trusted a Quaker who lived 100 miles from Zanesville.

The Young family, who, according to Kilbourne's song, "soon joined the others hand in hand," first settled in Section 5, Whetstone Township, on the farm now owned by William Holmes, in the Stewart neighborhood. The Young family, however, were large land-holders in Bucyrus Township at an early day. It is reported that the old gentleman, William Young, gave each of his children 160 acres of land; that George Black, who settled in Bucyrus at an early day, and married a Miss Young, received for his portion the fourth section, upon which the Sinn Mill is now situated. Previous to transferring this to Black, however, Mr. Young built a flouring-mill at this point; for some time it was a horse mill, and customers could not secure a grist without they took their own horses, and were sometimes compelled to wait many hours before their turn arrived. The tax duplicate of 1830 proves that George Young owned this fourth section at that time, and John and Jacob Young each had 160 acres southwest of George Young's farm; they were all residents of the township at that time, and a few of the present citizens of Crawford County are descended from the Young family.

Daniel McMichael settled in Crawford County several of the Western States, tarrying at Lincoln, Ill., and Fond du Lac, Wis., becoming foreman of a carriage-shop at the latter place. In 1874, he returned to his native State, and worked at the city of Pittsburgh for about six months, when he came to Bellefontaine, Ohio, in the fall of 1874, and from there to Findlay, where he worked until 1875. He came to Bucyrus in April of that year, and worked for one year in the carriage manufactory of Philip Osman. In 1876, Mr. Woodside, in company with Lewis P. Osman purchased the carriage factory of Philip Osman, and conducted the business one year under the firm name of Osman & Woodside. June 25, 1877, the firm was enlarged by the accession of P. Osman, G. W. Teel and George Welsh, and the business was conducted one year under the firm name of Philip Osman & Co. In September, 1878, Mr. Woodside purchased the entire establishment, and has since carried on the business with good success. He employs about eight hands, and turns out from 75 to 100 carriages and buggies per year. His work comprises the most attractive and stylish patterns, and has gained an enviable reputation for durability and cheapness.

SAMUEL D. WELSH, painter, Bucyrus; is the son of Benjamin S. and Rebecca A. (Drake) Welsh, the former a native of Jefferson Co., Va., from whence he moved to Ross Co., Ohio, in 1807. He lived there until 1823, and then moved to Wyandot Co. The mother is a native of Marion Co., Ohio, and the daughter of Judge William S. Drake, who was a Captain in the war of 1812, and the hero of the celebrated Drake's defeat. The subject of this sketch was born Oct. 4, 1830, near the Wyandot Reservation, in what is now Wyandot Co., Ohio. His youth, until 17, was spent on the farm, with only the advantages afforded by the common schools. He attended an academy then located at Wyandot one year, by hard study laying the foundation for future usefulness. In 1849, he went to Springfield, Ohio, where he learned the trade of painting, with a man named John Black, and at the expiration of his apprenticeship he became a journeyman painter in the true sense of the word. During this period, he visited several cities, and at each point sought the best instructions that could be obtained. He continued to work in this way until 1855. Oct. 4, 1855, he united his fortunes with Miss Mary White, of Dallas Township, of this county. Of this marriage there was one daughter, named Nellie, who died in infancy. After marriage, Mr. Welsh followed farming and house-painting in Dallas Township until the war broke out, when he enlisted, in September, 1861, in the regimental band of the 15th O. V. I., as member of the first class. He was at the same time special field artist for Harper Brothers, of New York, and in that capacity furnished sketches of battle-scenes and historical locations. He was taken sick in January, 1862, and taken to the hospital at Louisville, Ky., and afterward came home. In 1863, he sold his farm and removed to Newark, Ohio, where he kept a music store one year. He then came to Bucyrus, in 1864, and resumed his trade, which he has since followed with good success. He has taken several large contracts, employing as high as twenty-six hands at one time. He is Superintendent of painting for the Ohio Central Coal Co., at Corning. Since 1869, Mr. Welsh has gained an enviable reputation as a decorative and fresco artist. His specimens of oil painting have for several years taken diplomas wherever exhibited, and have attracted considerable attention among lovers of art. The first wife of Mr. Welsh died March 3, 1869, and he was a second time married, Oct. 4, 1871, to Miss Minnie E. Brown, of Lykens Township. There is one child born of this union, Rebecca E. Mr. Welsh was for eighteen years a member of the Presbyterian Church, when he united with the Advent Christian Church, at Nevada, Ohio. In October, 1877, he was ordained an Elder in that body, and has for some years preached to his brethren. He is Secretary and Treasurer of the State Conference of the the Advent Church. He served eight years as Justice of the Peace, and filled acceptably other offices of trust.

GEORGE H. WELSH, farmer and stock-raiser; P. O. Bucyrus. Perhaps there is no family in all Crawford Co. that has a more interesting history than that of the family of George Welsh. Zachariah Welsh was of English-German descent, and a native of the State of Maryland; he came to Fairfield Co., Ohio, from Virginia, at an early day, and shortly after the war of 1812 removed to Marion Co., Ohio, near the Wyandot Reservation. He and wife, Hannah S. (Steen) Welsh, remained here a number of years, and to them were born fourteen children, only the ten following being alive

died between 25 Oct. 1859

them again, and they left for parts unknown, drifting still farther to the west, leaving an empty cabin behind.

But during the year 1820 other settlers, real settlers, did arrive. The Beadles were the first in the spring of that year, David Beadle, with two sons, Mishael and David, and a son-in-law, John Ensley. Next came Daniel McMichael and Joseph Young, and during the year several others. In his song of Bucyrus Col. Kilbourne thus gives them:

"First Norton and the Beadles came
With friends an enterprising band;
Young and McMichael, men of fame,
Soon joined the others heart and hand."

Poetry is not the best method of writing history, as to preserve the rhythm and meter much of the detail must be omitted, so two of the first pioneers, Bucklin and Holmes, get notice as "friends," the same with son-in-law Ensley. As to Sears, he was not a pioneer and Col. Kilbourne did well to omit him. Young and McMichael, although classed as men of fame, were not more distinguished than Norton and Beadle, but the necessity of a rhyme to "came," occurring in the line with their names, gave them the distinguished honor of being famous.

The Beadles came across the Plains from the Quaker settlement of Friendsborough in Morrow county, and Mishael Beadle had his cabin on West Mansfield street, where the late Silas Bowers' residence now is; this was on the north 40 acres of an 80-acre tract; on the south 40 acres David Beadle had his cabin, and with him was his son, David, a young man of 17; their cabin was near the corner of Charles and Spring streets. The Norton daughters and Mrs. Ichabod Rogers state the Beadles were very migratory, Mishael at one time living across the river at the northwest corner of the Tiffin road and North River street, the old man and young David moving into Mishael's former cabin on West Mansfield. John Ensley, with his wife, Ann Beadle, also lived over the river, near Mishael's second residence. Mishael was married, and in the summer of 1822, the first death occurred, a little son of Mishael Beadle, and Norton gave the ground for a burial site, at the junction of Walnut, Galion and Middletown streets, and here the little boy was buried, the early pioneers all tendering what aid and sympathy they could to the afflicted family. That winter another daughter of David Beadle, named Clarinda, was married and later young David took himself a wife. Mishael Beadle tired of his residence over the river and entered a tract of land south of the present Oakwood cemetery, now the Magee farm, and here he was contented to remain several years, his brother-in-law entering the land just east of him, extending to what is now the Marion road. The Beadles were as fond of hunting as they were opposed to work, and when about 1826, Samuel Myers bought the original 80-acre tract they had entered only eight or ten acres had been cleared. The price paid to the Beadles by Myers for the land was $6 an acre. About 1827 they moved west. Bucklin also left the county, but the Nortons, the McMichaels and the Youngs are still here in the third and fourth generations. Joseph Young entered his first land in section 5, Whetstone township, nearly two miles east of Bucyrus; he built a small flouring mill run by horse power, on the river a mile west of Bucyrus, where Sinn's dam was later built with a regular water-power mill; afterward known as Couts dam. The mill run by horse power meant with him that a man brings his grain, hitches his own horse to the mill, and grinds the grain. He kept no horses himself at the mill. Later he gave the mill to his son-in-law, George Black, and a dam was built, and the mill run by water power and it became an important mill for years to come. Young also gave each of his sons 160 acres, as the tax duplicate of 1830 shows that George, Jacob and John Young each had 160 acres along the river near the mill.

Daniel McMichael came to this section in the fall of 1819, and spent his first winter on the banks of the Whetstone, eight miles from Bucyrus. He was there with his family when Norton was making his trip looking up a location. He was in what is now Crawford county, but then it was a part of Richland county, in the neighborhood of the Sharrocks. Daniel McMichael then moved into Liberty township in the spring of 1820, the first settler in that township, built a grist mill on his land on the river one mile northeast of Bucyrus, the first mill in the county. Then he came

Dear Arlene,

At first I thought I had something on your ancestor of your query in TRACKING in Crawford County, July 199o but now I'm not so sure, so here is a Family Group Sheet on our William Young showing his children.

As you can see we are not sure of who married who, child #10, William Young. We have not been able to determine which lady was his wife, or if he was married twice, 2nd being Susanna ANKENY. If you positively know that your Wm YOUNG married Susanna ANKENY then I hope that the Susan CLINGER will belong to our Wm YOUNG. We do not know where he lived after the probate of his father, Wm YOUNG, Sr.

The other factor being that you mention he possibly has brothers, Alexander & Eli. I decided to send you this FGS and let you decide. I only hope this will be of some help to you.

Good luck.

Sincerely,

Helen

Dear Dorothy,

You probably thought that you were never going to hear from me. Well, it's just that I'm old and slow.
I finally have these documents together and am sending them your way. The reason I picked your Tree was due to our picture of Nancy Young and the picture of Elizabeth Young in your Tree. It seemed that there was a strong resemblance.

1. William Young's Will and Probate records indicate that his daughter Elizabeth Young married George Black. In 1841 William's probate record calls George Black his "son-in-law". I did not find George Black and Elizabeth in the 1850 US Federal Census Record. Or the 1860. In both instances there was an Elizabeth Black living in the household of Abraham Penn in Salt Creek, Pickaway, OH.
2. William Young's Cem. Stone and location of Cem.
3. John Young's Cem. Stone
4. Several pages from Crawford County History.
5 2 letters of correspondence between Rachel Miller of Bucyrus and Helen N. Smith, 3rd great granddaughter of Nancy (Young) Fickle. Helen and I are cousins.
6. Abstract of the Will of George Young.
7. Picture of Nancy (Young) Fickle, wife of my great, grandfather Isaac Hedge Fickle.

I have no proof that the Elizabeth Black living in the Penn family is Elizabeth (Young) Black except that she is of the correct age range.

Hope all is going well with your refurbishing project and that you are having a good summer.

Rachel

Hi Roena,
I am so envious about your trip to the Allen Co. Library. I have read many great things about it. We are only about 5 hours north of LDS Family History library in Salt Lake City and we just don't get there often enough. Now that you have given me a little more info on Elizabeth and this George Black I need to get back to her and see what I really have. All I can remember is I have been confused and my mom's cousin didn't seem to get many answers back when. I'd love to have a copy of the Will and probate records. My physical address is Dorothy Liss, 75 Horn Creek Rd, Cameron, Montana 59720 or if you scan and email I can get documents that way too. We will be leaving next week for some time in eastern Montana. We are refurbishing a ranch house (houses) on a Church ranch in eastern Montana and we are not sure how long we will be there. Out there we do not have cell or internet service. We travel to Miles City, Montana to the Pizza Hut for lunch on our days off so we can connect to their WIFI and call our kids on our cells. So if you do not hear from us right away it is because we are out of service. But when I can I will be in touch and doing some more research. Happy hunting at the library.

Thank you so much for responding to my note. I am descended from William and Mary Young's daughter Nancy who married my great grandfather Isaac Hedge Fickle. We have never known William's wife Mary's maiden name. Ancestry.com gave me 8 public member family trees so I clicked on each and when I saw the picture of Elizabeth Ann Young I had to see it as it looks so much like our Nancy Young's picture I was sure they were sisters but our information on Elizabeth is quite different. The dates of William Young and Mary on your tree are the same as ours. In our tree, Elizabeth was born 17 July 1801 and married George Black. If you would like William Young's Will and probate records I would be glad to send them to you. Our problem is: our Nancy was born in PA but we don't know what County they were living in.
Just had a phone call and we have a ride to the Allen Co. Library, Genealogy Dept. in Ft. Wayne, IN. tomorrow. Thanks again and hope to hear from you again. Roena Bayes, 1507 Spring Meadow Ln. Bryan, OH Ph: 419-636-3468

My mom's cousin Wilda Johnson was the first to do Family History in this family for us and it was a little confusing for me at first due to Elizabeth's first marriage to Isaac Robbins. I wasn't sure which was her married and maiden names. You probably saw where Charles Alexander Pogue her son is my Great-grandfather. My mother's brother was also named Charles Alexander Pogue and was called Buddie. He was killed in a bomber crash in Texas while in the Air Force. I was only three at the time but I remember him. I think I have posted all the pictures I have of her. The most recent one I found on Ancestry. Maybe from you. So I do know that others are working on researching this line. Right now I am all over my tree researching. We plan a trip to New England in August so I am getting my Vermont and Maine lines looked at so I can do some research while we are in that area.

My mother's brother was also named Charles Alexander Pogue and was called Buddie. He was killed in a bomber crash in Texas while in the Air Force. I was only three at the time but I remember him. I think I have posted all the pictures I have of her. The most recent one I found on Ancestry. Maybe from you. So I do know that others are working on researching this line. Right now I am all over my tree researching. We plan a trip to New England in August so I am getting my Vermont and Maine lines looked at so I can do some research while we are in that area

Thanks again and I'd love hear from you and see the pictures you have too.

Dear Roena,

Here is a bit more I found. It seems you had contact with this Donald Maxwell regarding the Youngs before. H2537 is our e-mail. Don has Mary and Polly as separate children of William, with Mary married to Joseph M. Young. That Joseph was her lawyer and for some reason I don't think they were married. I still have Mary and Polly as one and the same on my FGS. Maybe an 1850 census could sort that one out.....Will put it on my TO DO list.

Here are a couple changes I am making on my Timeline for William Young.

25 Sep 1762	Born (Headstone), in Pennsylvania (census)	H593, H2535
15 Aug 1777-1 Nov 1780*	Military Serv. 7th Maryland Reg. (Age 15)	C657, H2000
1796	Taxable res. Luzerne Co. Pa.	EX-809p12

*We have no proof that this William Young is ours.

Trying to get a little yard work done but it got so warm so fast it really zaps you. At least got the little space out back spaded up for my three tomato plants. Two Celebrity, one Sweet 100s.

Hope you are well and not letting all your official work get you down. Maybe you should plan a big vacation for yourself next year – like out west.....

'Til next time, Love,

Helen

Dear Roena,

Have you found out where the Youngs came from in Penn.? The land records didn't show.

You may have this information all ready--but while I was in SLC last April I looked up the will of William Young. It was from the Crawford Co ohio wills on GS film #388660.
Wife: Mary
2 grandchildren: Mary Farhbaugh, formerly Mary Burns, and William Burns to have 80 acres of land in Henry Co., Ohio
2 grandsons: William and Tobias, sons of my son, John Young Son: Jacob Young released from debts and to have $50
The following to share equally in remainder of property: Michael Young, William Young, Elizabeth Black, George Young, Polly Young, Barbara Shaffer and Nancy Fickle.
Dated 22 October 1839
Executor: George Aumiller
Witnesses: Tatmon Rowse
John Markley

Will of George Young of Bucyrus Twp, Crawford Co., Ohio
Wife: Levenia
6 children of present wife: Delila Ann, Isaiah, Mariah, George Riley, Hezekiah, and William Martin Granddaughter: Mary Melissa Mounser to receive $200 when farm sold
Sons: Simon Peter and Jeremiah
Wife to get land in Wyandot Co.
Dated 6 Apr 1852
Witnesses: James McCraken and William Shrobl
Probated 22 Apr 1852

I belive the above George to be the son of William. George married Levenia Linn 2 Apr 1835 Crawford Co., Ohio

In 1824, William Young deeded 80 acres to George Black, 160 acres to each of the following Jacob Shaffer, John Young, Jacob Young, Nancy Young, Joseph Young and George Young.

Didn't find Jacob Shaffer or George Black. Jacob Shaffer sold 160 acres 19 Oct 1833. There were other Shaffers listed in the 1850 census index.

Do you have the Fickles figured out? Is Benjamin the son of Michael and Margaret Fickle of Fredericks Co., Md?

Have you found Benjamins other children other than Isaac, Rachel Vansky and Catherine Killpatrick?

It's 40 miles to an LDS Branch Genealogy Library in Bremerton, but I work there 2 days a month, so it keeps me on the genealogy track.

Dear Helen::

I want to answer some of your questions in your last letter. The picture of John Young's headstone was taken in my back yard. It is now in my garage. It was leaning against a tree near were the cemetery was on the Smith property. Therefore, I'm sure both John and his father were buried in the same cemetery.

I was talking to a man who lives in the area and had owned some of the Young property and he remembered seeing the headstone and brought it in to me.

The headstone for Wm Young was taken to Mansfield by C. Eugene Probst and he died soon after. I had my brother try to locate the headstone but Eugene's wife didn't know anything about it. Eugene is related but I don't know where he fits in. I had only met him once or twice.

September is going to be a busy month for me. My granddaughter is getting married Sept. 5 and the last of September (24-27) I plan to be out of state. Then another Friday and Saturady I will be out of state, but I do not know which one. I still expect to be able to attend the September 17 meeting here in Bucyrus.

I hope that you and Roena can get to Bucyrus when you are in Ohio. I would like to meet both of you.

Sincerely,

Rachel

Dear Helen::

This is my third time to start a letter to you. I have been doing some more research. Was to the courthouse here in Bucyrus and checking file box 105 in Probate Court for information on John and William Young. I found that John had 9 children (1830 census gives 2 boys and 7 girls). Only have names of three William, Tobias and Catherine (Katharine). Catherine married Benjamin Hawk 1 Jan 1835. Benjamin much have been the one to settle the estate of John for his name appears on a lot of papers. John had no will.

According to a doctor's bill John would have been sick for several month and most likely died after his father - very last of October or first of November in 1839..

I found papers with the name Mary on them as the wife of John. One of the papers had Mary ann on it as his wife.

When I looked up the picture of a Hawk which I had mentioned in my letter to you I found 2 pictures and on the back of them it has cousins to John Rudolph Young. The picture of Mary Close was in a frame with Appleton, Wis. on it. The one of Jack Hawk had Napoleon, Ohio on it and much be the son of Catherine and Benjamin Hawk. According to information in the file box Catherine and Benjamin settled at Napoleon, Ohio.

The estates of John and William were in probate at the same time. In a legal notice in the newspaper both names were mentioned and William's was the final account, and John was a partial settlement.

I took a trip to Upper Sandusky on June 11th to get some dates which were missing in my information on the Youngs. Information on the DeJean and Tivenan families is not up to date, but is all that I have. I know I still have more research to do. Decided to send you my computer printout. Hope you can understand it.

Thank you for the picture of the headstone of Wm. Young.

I'm just getting started at doing actual research in courthouses, etc. My working hours didn't allow me much chance to get into places to do research. This was one of my retirement projects.

Sincerely,

Rachel

WILLIAM YOUNG

25 Sept. 1762 - 25 Oct. 1839

William Young was a resident of Pennsylvania in the year 1800. A more specific location is not known. Nor is it known whether they came directly from PA to Crawford County, Ohio or whether he is the William who was a taxpayer in Faiarfield County, Hocking Township in 1806; Muskingum County in 1816 or Pickaway in 1816. However, about 1820 William and his wife Mary and their family had settled in Crawford County, Whetstone Township in Section 5. They were the parents of ten children, five boys and five girls. By the time they arrived in Crawford County at least John, Jacob and George were young men. By 1830 they were all taxpayers on 160 acres each. Their other two sons were Michael and William. Their daughters were Elizabeth who married George Black; Polly who possibly never married; Barbara who married Jacob Shaffer, a daughter, name unknown who married a Mr. Burns and was probably deceased by the time her father made his will in 1839. The Burns had two children who were remembered in their grandfather's will with 80 acres of land located in Henry County, Ohio. Their names were Mary (Burns) Fashbaugh and William B urns. A daughter Nancy, my great grandmother, who married Isaac H, Fickle on Dec. 25, 1825 by Conrad Rath, J.P. Marion County, Ohio. Nancy was born in PA on 31 Dec. 1800 or 1802. (See Fickle Family Hist. for information on the family of Nancy(Young) and Isaac H. Fickle). Perhaps John was also deceased or some other reason his share was given to his sons William and Tobias.

William Young was a large land holder in Bucyrus Twp. at an early day. He gave each of his children 160 acres of land. He built a flowering mill on the fourth section and this was the portion he transferred to George and Elizabeth Black. For some time it was a horse mill and customers could not secure a grist without they took their own horses and were sometimes compelled to wait many hours before their turn arrived.

Perhaps grandfather and some of his sons heard Col. Kilbourne render the Ballad which he composed for the special occasion in the spring of 1822 when the sale of lots in the town of Bucyrus was held. The Col. had laid out these lots. The fourth stanza of the "Song of Bucyrus" begins: "First Norton and the Beadles came,
With friends and enterprising band;
Young and McMichael, men of fame,
Soon joined the others hand in hand."

William spent the rest of his life in Crawford County, Ohio. He made his will on the 22 day of October 1839. Only a few days of life remained for William. He died on Oct. 25, 1839, aged 77 years. His was the first known burial in a graveyard two miles west of Bucyrus on the Wyandot road. His wife Mary survived him and was still living in June 1840.

when the cloud was removed, the people largely returned to their original holdings. The first merchant was Frederick Newman, who did well, and other enterprises followed, including a hotel, dry goods and drug store. blacksmith shops, a cooper shop, a grocery and saloon, and a fine steam saw mill which was owned and operated by Warden & Tracht, and the flourishing steam tile-factory established by Sickman, Fate & Co. of Crestline.

After Magers bought out his partners in the saw mill, he added an addition in which he placed two sets of buhrs and modern machinery for the grinding of grain. The mill was the center of a grain growing and populous region, and did a good business under several owners, but was finally destroyed by fire and never rebuilt. In 1873 Mr. Magers erected a large elevator, which has continued under various owners. In 1862 John L. Caskey and Lewis Holker built a large factory, and went into the carriage business extensively, employing a number of hands, and half a century ago their carriage works were one of the important industries in the county. The first physician in the village was Dr. Frank Duff. On July 26, 1861, the post office was re-established in the Newman store with Frederick Newman as postmaster, and has continued ever since. Mr Newman being succeeded by A. R. Warden, Oct. 29, 1861; James G. Patterson, Aug. 5, 1872; George Railing, April 21, 1875; George F. Darr, Feb. 10, 1881; J. W. Littler, April 25, 1882; E. G. Smith, June 15, 1889; J. W. Littler, June 27, 1893; Wilmina Warden, Sept. 14, 1897; E. R. Boyer, Sept 26, 1901; Ida R. Frank, May 15, 1907.

North Robinson has graded schools, their large brick having four rooms There are two churches, the Lutheran and the United Brethren. North Robinson was the home of Rev. John V. Potts, who wrote several religious works. He was active not only in the U. B. church but also in all religious work, and in some respects was like the ministers of half a century previous;—on horseback or on foot he traveled miles to fill some vacant pulpit.

When the Marion commissioners erected Whetstone township in 1824, Heman Rowse and George Poe were the first justices elected in April, 1825, and their commissions were dated June 18 of that year. The following is the list of Justices of the Peace of Whetstone township:

The settlement of the northern part of the township necessitated schooling for the children, and the first school was held in the cabin of John Beckwith. The cabin was of logs and consisted of but one room. And at one end of this room, the eating and sleeping side was given up to the school. The other end was the kitchen department where the meals were being prepared. The school teacher is unknown, but the fact is handed down that a definite line existed in the cabin, established by Mrs. Beckwith, over which no child dared pass; so the first school was held in the summer of 1824, with mental refreshments being served at one end of the room while bodily refreshments were being prepared at the other. During that winter no school was held, the larger children going to Bucyrus, and the smaller ones picking up what knowledge they could at home. That winter, however, the settlers, cleared a place and erected a small schoolhouse on the farm of Joseph Young, and the first winter it was taught by Moses Arden of Bucyrus. Two years later a log schoolhouse was built east of this. In these earlier schoolhouses time was not taken to square the logs; they were put in place, round as when they came from the trees, and what furniture they had was made by the settlers themselves.

Proceeding southward, the center of the township began to be fairly settled, and here in 1828, a log schoolhouse was erected on

Wolf Scalp Certificates and Affidavits

compiled by Maxine Kinton

Life was hard on the new frontier. Adding to the difficulties were the wolves and bears. At times it seemed nearly impossible for the pioneers to raise sheep or hogs. Although the bears seemed to prefer pork, the wolves had a preference for sheep. As an incentive for capturing the wolves, the State offered a bounty for each wolf the pioneers would kill. After drying the hide, they would take the scalp of the wolf to the local authorities as proof of the capture. For each scalp presented they were given a bounty of $4.00. Many a young man devoted their time almost exclusively to the business of trapping wolves. The original wolf scalp papers are in the possession of the Society. If you would like a copy of a certificate/affidavit for any person listed below write to the Society.

Obituary.

Catherine Young was born July 22, 1815, in the state of Connecticut, and died at her home near the State line, Friday, May 16, 1902, aged 86 years, 9 months and 24 days.

She was married to Benjamin Hawk January, 1, 1835. To this union were born 10 children–3 girls and 7 boys; seven of these survive her. Also 34 grand-children and 23 great grand-children.

Her husband died Feb. 22, 1900, in his 89th year.

Grandma Hawk was one of the pioneers of Allen county, Indiana, moving there in 1866, where she resided until her death, which came peacefully after a period of great suffering. She was a loving christian mother and kind neighbor, loved by all who knew her.

Funeral was held Sunday in the Luthern church and the interment took place in the Diehl cemetery.

will occupy the farm vacated by him.

Benjamin Hawk, a pioneer farmer of Maumee township, died at his home Thursday last in his eighty-ninth year. Funeral services, conducted by E. C. Carrington, were held at the Lutheran church near by and the remains were deposited in the Diel cemetery. The aged wife, but two years his junior, survives in feeble health. Feb 22 1900

Mrs. Mary Westerman, a former resident of this township, has been spending a few days pleasantly among friends. Her present home is in Kansas.

G. W. HAWK DIES SUDDENLY AT HOME EAST OF TOWN

George Washington Hawk, aged 76 years, an '89er of this county, died at his home east of town in Skeleton township about 7 o'clock last evening, after a brief illness. He complained of not feeling well Monday, and on Tuesday apparently grew worse. A physician was summoned to attend him Wednesday afternoon, but a heart attack about 7 o'clock resulted in a general collapse and death.

Funeral services will be held at Union Chapel, northeast of town tomorrow (Friday) afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be made in the Lyons Valley cemetery, near his brother, whose death occurred about two years ago.

He is survived by his faithful wife and five children, John Hawk, Jesse Hawk, Mrs. August Wehling and Mrs. Ray Burner, of Hennessey, and Mrs. Wm. Harry, of Mulhall. One sister and two brothers, Mrs. Amanda Howell, and Zachriah and Chauncey Hawk, residents of Ohio, also suvive to mourn his passing.

George Washington Hawk was born in the state of Ohio. Later in life he removed to Kansas, and came to Oklahoma at the "opening" in 1889. The homestead upon which he filed in 1889 remained his home until his death. He was one of the county's best citizens and a loyal neighbor. Many friends of this vicinity who knew and esteemed him at his real worth will grieve to learn of his death.

Dear Helen::

This is my third time to start a letter to you. I have been doing some more research. Was to the courthouse here in Bucyrus and checking file box 105 in Probate Court for information on John and William Young. I found that John had 9 children (1830 census gives 2 boys and 7 girls). Only have names of three William, Tobias and Catherine (Katharine). Catherine married Benjamin Hawk 1 Jan 1835. Benjamin much have been the one to settle the estate of John for his name appears on a lot of papers. John had no will.

According to a doctor's bill John would have been sick for several month and most likely died after his father - very last of October or first of November in 1839..

I found papers with the name Mary on them as the wife of John. One of the papers had Mary ann on it as his wife.

When I looked up the picture of a Hawk which I had mentioned in my letter to you I found 2 pictures and on the back of them it has cousins to John Rudolph Young. The picture of Mary Close was in a frame with Appleton, Wis. on it. The one of Jack Hawk had Napoleon, Ohio on it and much be the son of Catherine and Benjamin Hawk. According to information in the file box Catherine and Benjamin settled at Napoleon, Ohio.

The estates of John and William were in probate at the same time. In a legal notice in the newspaper both names were mentioned and William's was the final account, and John was a partial settlement.

I took a trip to Upper Sandusky on June 11th to get some dates which were missing in my information on the Youngs. Information on the DeJean and Tivenan families is not up to date, but is all that I have. I know I still have more research to do. Decided to send you my computer printout. Hope you can understand it.

Thank you for the picture of the headstone of Wm. Young.

I'm just getting started at doing actual research in courthouses, etc. My working hours didn't allow me much chance to get into places to do research. This was one of my retirement projects.

Sincerely,

Rachel

JOHN R. YOUNG was born in this county December 13, 1851. He is a son of Tobias and Elizabeth (Klinger) Young, and was the only child. The former was born in Crawford County, Ohio, in October 1824, and the latter in the same county May 15, 1825. They were married December 2, 1849, and April 11, 1850, erected a log cabin in Crawford County, into which the moved without a door or window. Wild animals were numerous. Mr. Young died March 10, 1853. His widow subsequently married Stephen Crawford, and had one son, William H. His father purchased eighty acres of land in 1846; his mother subsequently marrying Stephen Crawford, with whom she is still living. Mr. Young resided with his mother till twenty-four years of age, but preferring the out-door sports to the tedious tasks of the school-room he obtained but a limited education. He inherited eighty acres from his father's estate, where he has resided most of his life and is still located. He was married March 9, 1876 to Rachel E. Mollenkopf, a native of Lucas County, Ohio, and daughter of Philip and Dora (Hinely) Mollenkopf. Her parents were born in Germany, were married there, and emigrated to America about 1855, locating three years in Lucas County. They then moved to Crawford County, where they still reside. Their children now living are Dora, Philip, John, Rachel, Lewis, Mary, and Jacob. Mr. and Mrs. Young have three children ---- Lewis T., born March 4, 1878; Clara J., December 21, 1879; and Huldah, July 28, 1882. In politics Mr. Young is a Democrat.

Dear Roena,

So good to hear from you. Thank you for all the information, it's been a long time since I've worked on the Fickle line. Ina Van Nortwick Hutchison had sent me your article on Benjamin from the Northwest Historian. I sent the two pages on to Gerald Fickel in Iowa, and Nona.

The Isaac Fickle of Frederick Co., Indentures, where do you think he fits into our tree?

I don't follow your William Fickle and wife Annie. The only William I have is s/o Benjamin, the one that married Phebe - issue: Benjamin, Michael, and Eliza.

It would be nice to get together and try to come to some kind of decision about some of these people. Until I sell my house I cannot plan any long trips as much as I'd love to go east this year.

Here is some new information on the Youngs. This will clear up the disappearance of Tobias Young I have been trying to find for the past two years - off and on. I am anxiously awaiting an answer from Rachel Miller as I asked her for any pictures she may have. She mentions hearing "cousin Hawk" and there is a Hawk listed in the probate. Rachel M. Miller, 529 S. Poplar Street, Bucyrus, OH 44820.

Sounds like your summer will be a busy one. Happy Hunting! Best wishes to Al.

Love,

Helen

Dear Arlene,

At first I thought I had something on your ancestor of your query in TRACKING in Crawford County, July 1990 but now I'm not so sure, so here is a Family Group Sheet on our William Young showing his children.

As you can see we are not sure of who married who, child #10, William Young. We have not been able to determine which lady was his wife, or if he was married twice, 2nd being Susanna ANKENY. If you positively know that your Wm YOUNG married Susanna ANKENY then I hope that the Susan CLINGER will belong to our Wm YOUNG. We do not know where he lived after the probate of his father, Wm YOUNG, Sr.

The other factor being that you mention he possibly has brothers, Alexander & Eli. I decided to send you this FGS and let you decide. I only hope this will be of some help to you.

Good luck.

Sincerely,

piece contained. A number of instruments required crooks to change the key when the piece required it.

Mr. Simon was a good musician and could play almost any instrument. On summer evenings he would come out and play solos. I worked in a shop where Dillman's undertaking place is now (in 1975 the northeast corner of High and Beech streets). I was young and knew it all and once we got into a jangle about music and he told me I would see the time that I would learn I knew nothing about music.

In the summer of 1852 Charles Young, John Low Jr., Ed Evans, Sol Urie and myself went over to West Unity and played for a political meeting. We had one E-flat clarinet, one key bugle, one French horn, a drum, and orphclide. The instrument Young played was in bad shape, being split the whole length, stopped with beeswax and wrapped with a string. When we were called upon to play and the crowd was waiting for us to do our part that clarinet failed every time and would squawk and nothing more. Sam Miller, who was the marshal, came riding up to the stand and cried; "Hold on, boys. I have sent home for my flock of geese, and they will soon be here and help you out." You better believe that crowd cheered, but Young stuck to his business and got the clarinet going, and we played some music that pleased them.

On the next evening we played at Montpelier and did much better. While coming home, two of us turned around, when about three miles out of town, and saw a black bear trotting along behind us. The road was nearly all through forest, and after a while the bear turned into the woods and left us. Such was the condition of the country at that time.

When the first band was organized in 1852, E. K. Fares was the teacher and the organization was made up of nine pieces, E-flat and B-flat clarinets, B-flat cornet, two trombones, tenor and bass, one alto, one orphclide and two drums. In 1854 a circus broke up at Bryan and George Benson, the leader of its band, was employed to teach. The band increased in numbers. Isaac White, a famous bugler, was next employed. He used a different style of music and it was much more difficult to play. I was leading then with an E-flat cornet and played altogether by ear. The new music being so much harder I would get mixed up and confuse the band. White said to me one evening I would have to learn to play by note, and then I thought of the prediction made to me by John A. Simon and that it had come true.

In 1855 I was employed to teach a band in Williams Center. In it were George Ager, J. P. Dodge, Oliver Hughs, James Ager, Gust Dillman and others I have forgotten. In 1856 or 1857 the Williams County Agricultural Society offered a prize to the best band at the Fair, each band to state the length of time it had played and the amount of instruction it had received. The Bryan band had played longest and had more instruction, which was to our disadvantage, but we went in and played our best and won.

At one time the band was employed to play at two political meetings in Defiance, one for Vallandigham and one for Logan. We stayed all night at the Russell House and the boys were on a tear. Bob McQuilkin got out on a window sill with only an undergarment on and spoke a piece. The landlord came up to quiet him, and the boys wrapped him in a blanket and took him back downstairs. Some of the fellows got into a racket over a watermelon and grabbed it and ran up the street. Others ran into a bedroom where two strangers were sleeping, got under their bed, and raised up, throwing them out on the floor. There was not much sleeping that night.

When the Civil War broke out some of the boys mustered into the 38th regiment band, but the local organization continued under the leadership of myself and Henry Wertz. The 38th band was mustered out in 1862 and the boys joined the Bryan band again with Phil Gilman as leader. After him I took it for a time and was followed by Henry Wertz in 1878.

With seven of my boys whom I had taught to play we furnished music through the Garfield campaign for both parties. After that I again went into the old band until Professor Miller came in 1884 and since that time I have taken no part in this work here.

In 1881 I was employed to teach the Pioneer band, and I found it composed of a fine lot of gentlemen. I never was treated anywhere better than those four months at Pioneer. I have had a number of other bands, one at Ney and one at Melbern, but my experience is now closed.

Jacob Shaffer Obituary

Another Pioneer Gone.

Mr. Jacob Shaffer, a pioneer citizen of Ohio, died at his residence in this place on last Friday, January 15th, 1875. The deceased was born in Frederick county, Maryland, August 19th, 1791, and was therefore aged 83 years, 4 months and 26 days at the time of his death. When a boy he moved with his father to Huntington county, Pa., where he was living at the breaking out of the war of 1812, in which he served as a volunteer until the close of the war. He was married on the 5th day of January, 1816, to Miss Barbara Young, of Huntington county, Pa. In the year 1818, he, in company with some twenty other families, emigrated from Huntington county, Pa. to Crawford county, Ohio, and settled on territory

In the year 1818, he, in company with some twenty other families, emigrated from Huntington county, Pa., to Crawford county, Ohio, and settled on territory upon a portion of which now stands the town of Bucyrus. At that time the land upon which he settled was not in the market. For ten or fifteen years after his settlement in Crawford county the Indians were his most intimate neighbors and he got along with them very pleasantly—mutual acts of kindness being a common thing between him and them. After moving from Crawford county he made several changes of residence and finally settled in this place in the year 1866 and resided here up to the time of his death. He was the father of ten children, only four of whom are now living—two sons and two daughters—who now, with his aged wife, are left to mourn their loss. During life he was engaged in farming, merchandizing and milling, but quit active business about fifteen years ago. He was a man of strict integrity of character and prompt and honest in all his business several years previous to his death, and since 1870 has suffered greatly from paralysis, from the effects of which he died. His funeral took place on last Sunday and was attended by a large concourse of people. Thus has another pioneer passed away, and thus has another soldier of the war of 1812 gone to that bourne where everlasting peace exists.

chapel erected just north of the township line. One of the most zealous workers in this church was Zachariah Welsh of Wyandot, at whose cabin religious exercises of prayer and praise were frequently held before the schoolhouses were utilized for that purpose. One of the most noted among the early Methodists was the Rev. James Gilruth. He was a man of powerful frame and with a voice to correspond, and a commanding air that awed even the turbulent element or "rowdies" one of whose favorite amusements it was to attend church for the express purpose of disturbing the meeting. His physical prowess was well known to this unruly class and there was little trouble from them when he occupied the pulpit. In 1823-24 he traveled a four weeks' circuit, which took in the neighboring villages of Delaware, Kenton and Bucyrus, with intermediate appointments in the lesser villages. He often preached in Mr. Welsh's cabin and in those of some of the other settlers. In 1840 he was transferred to an Iowa conference, after having twice been returned to this circuit. He was followed in 1824 by Rev. Mr. Cadwallader. Once every three months the western part of the county was visited by Rev. James B. Finley, who, as early as 1817 was superintendent of the Wyandot Mission. The celebrated Russell Bigelow who was stationed at the Sandusky Mission in 1827, also preached occasionally in this district, to the great edification of the settlers, who came from miles around to hear him. Dallas was then part of the Portland District, Ohio Conference, which included in its bounds the state of Michigan. In the winter of 1836-37 Rev. John Gilbert Bruce conducted revival meetings, being assisted by Rev. Jeremiah Monnett. The presiding elder of Portland District from 1826 to 1830 was Rev. James McMahon, in 1836, Rev. Adam Poe, and in 1840, Rev. William Runnels.

One of the most able divines who ministered to the spiritual needs of the early settlers was Rev. S. P. Shaw, founder of Shaw University, Tennessee. He was a highly educated man and an earnest and powerful preacher. He was ordained deacon in the Ohio conference in 1827.

The "Devil's Half-Acre" is the name given to a locality in the midst of Dallas township, this side of the Scioto, which has been the scene of many unsuccessful efforts to establish a church. A log cabin stood on the spot previous to 1830, which was used for school and church purposes, and which after that date was replaced by another log building, which stood on the site of the present school building. Here efforts were first made to establish a society by the United Brethren, but without success. The Methodists made two attempts, under the Rev. William Mathews and others, but succeeded in making only a few nominal converts, who soon relapsed into the ways of sin. The Presbyterians tried under Rev. Mr. Hutchinson, but also failed. The United Brethren made a second attempt and were followed by the Disciples, with like results. It was then that Amos McMullen declared that he believed the spot was in possession of the Devil, which remark, becoming known, led to its being called the "Devil's Half Acre," which name it has since retained.

Prior to 1845 the eastern six miles of Dallas township were a part of Marion county, Scott township, while still another part belonged to Grand Prairie township in the same county. Among the citizens who resided in the Crawford county part, and were justices of the peace in the early days were Zachariah Welsh in 1824, Daniel Swigert in 1827, and Jacob Shaffer in 1828. The Crawford county records show many marriage ceremonies performed by Alanson Packard; he lived near Latimberville, in the Marion county part of the township, and was justice for many years. He was poetically inclined, as one of the entries on the record is as follows, the parties being in the Marion county section of the township:

"Marriage license was granted to Norton B. Royce and Eunice M. Dexter, March 14, 1832.

"I certify—that is to say,
This present March, the 18th day,
Eunice Dexter, Norton Royce,
As did your license authorize—
An awkward, ungainly, long-legged pair—
By me in marriage joined were.
By sages wise, it has been said
That matches all above are made.
If so, these ones in heaven have been:
God knows they'll never go again."

Joseph Black

Place: Orting Pierce County Washington

Description: Birth: unknown Ohio, USA Death: Dec. 20, 1902 Pierce County Washington, USA Joseph was born about 1831 in Crawford County, Ohio. The names of his parents are unknown. On Nov. 10, 1864, he enlisted as a private and served in "D" Co., Oregon 1st Infantry. He was promoted to corporal. The Oregon infantry worked to "fight Indians" and protect wagon trains and gold shipments. He was discharged from Fort Vancouver, in Clark County, Washington, on Jan. 16, 1866. He later received a pension due to his disabilities related to his military service. In 1870 he was living in Toledo in Benton County (now Lincoln County) near the Oregon Coast and worked as a carpenter. In January 1873 he married Eveline Tharp. Three years later Joseph acquired 159 acres in what is now Lincoln County through the Homestead Act. In 1880 he was farming near Kings Valley in Benton County. He moved the family to farm in Klicktat County, Washington. By 1887 they had five children: Edgar, George, Pearl, Benjamin Franklin (Frank), and Sadie. In about 1893 Eve took the children and moved to Oregon to live with a sister. Before 1885 she divorced Joseph. Before his death at age 71 Joseph was living in the Washington Soldiers Home near Orting, Pierce County, Washington. He died at the home and was buried in their cemetery. Sevenia Sinn Young

Birth: Aug. 25, 1817
Death: Feb. 5, 1876, USA

Added by: Jerry Ernsberger Jr.

Sevenia was the wife of George Young, and the daughter of George Sinn and Sarah (Hawk) Sinn. She shares a tombstone with two of her children; George R. Young and Maria (Young) Shoop/Shupp.
Sevenia was probably the second or third wife of George Young. Sevenia and George were married 2 Apr 1835, in Crawford County, Ohio, by John Davis, Minister of the Gospel. The 1850 census has two children Peter (abt 1830) and Jeremiah (abt 1833), which would make their births occuring before Sevenia married George. Another child Delilah A. (abt 1836) could be one of Sevenia's children. Sevenia's children are then:

Delilah A. (abt 1836)
married Daniel W. Shook-1855
Isaiah (abt 1837)
Maria (1839-1868)
married Jacob Shoop-1857
George R. (1841-1867)
Hezekiah H. (1844-1927)
married Lucretia Marcella (Buck)(Gifford)
William (abt 1847)

George Sr. does not show up with the family on any of the censuses after 1850. Another note is that on Hezekiah's death certificate, his father is listed as "William" instead of "George."

follows: Daniel S.; Agnes, wife of G. N. Fox; Julia M., wife of B. F. Stultz; Emma E., wife of John M. La Rowe; Curtis A. and Minnie M. Mr. Vanorsdall purchased 240 acres of land in Wyandot County, and settled upon the same in 1863. Since that time he has served in nearly all the offices in the township in which he resides, and also in some of the county offices. As Township Clerk he served for a term of sixteen years; as Treasurer, ten years; as Justice of the Peace, twenty-one years; as Assessor, two years. By appointment he was made Infirmary Director for one year, and afterward, by election, six years. In 1882, he was chosen as Commissioner, which office he still (1883) holds. He is a member of the F. and A. M., I. O. O. F. and Grange fraternities, and also of the Christian Union Church. In politics he is a stanch Democrat. He is still living on his finely cultivated farm, in the companionship of an excellent wife, and surrounded by a host of friends.

M. H. WALTERMIRE was born in Fairfield County, Ohio, September 29, 1827, and is the son of Samuel and Margaret (Clymer) Waltermire. Having a good knowledge of the English branches, at the age of twenty-one years he obtained a livelihood by teaching school and laboring at the carpenter's trade till the year 1865, when he obtained a piece of land in Jackson Township, Wyandot County, where he has since resided. On January 26, 1854, he married Mary E. Edwards, daughter of William and Mary A. (Bell) Edwards. Mrs. Waltermire was born November 22, 1832, in Belmont County, Ohio. Their marriage has been blessed by eight children—William M., born January 21, 1855; Mary M., born September 5, 1856 (wife of J. D. Alexander); Samuel H., born August 3, 1858; Andrew J., born August 30, 1860; Lemuel G., born February 19, 1864; Joseph H., born February 23, 1866; George W., born June 7, 1868; Emma M., born May 6, 1875. Mr. Waltermire is the owner of 120 acres of land, all under cultivation, and provided with a comfortable residence. He is a member of the I. O. O. F., and a sound Democrat. As Justice of the Peace he has served fifteen years, and as Township Clerk five years. He enjoys a pleasant home, the companionship of an excellent wife, and is well respected as a citizen.

HEZEKIAH YOUNG. In Crawford County, Ohio, March 11, 1844, this gentleman first appeared on the scene of life. He is the son of Surrena (Sinn) and George Young, the former born in Pennsylvania, in 1810, the latter in Virginia, in 1806, and dying in the years 1877 and 1848 respectively, being of German ancestry. Eight children blessed this union, five of whom are still living, as follows: Peter S., Jeremiah, Delilah, Hezekiah and Martin. Fannie, Isaac and Maria are numbered among the dead. Mr. Young was a soldier in the Mexican war, and in that capacity rendered able service in the cause of his country. The subject of this sketch was educated in the common schools of his day, emigrating to Missouri at the age of fifteen, but returning to Crawford County, Ohio, after an absence of six months, and working on the farm as a hand till the spring of 1864, at which time he entered the United States service. He was enlisted in the One Hundred and Forty-fourth Regiment, and, after three months' skirmishing in the Shenandoah Valley, was honorably discharged. Returning home, he labored on the farm till his marriage, which took place September 27, 1866, to Miss Malinda Baum, daughter of Jackson and Jane (Stokely) Baum, who was born May 8, 1847. As a result of this marriage eight children were born to them, all of whom are still living. The names of these are as follows: George W., Mary M., Ruie S., James W., Hezekiah, Gustus F., Harley L.

There is a story within the family that Reverend Daniel was a member of the underground who helped to hide and smuggle runaway slaves to freedom in the North. Many were the mornings that my father's father and his brother found the horse in a lather when they went to the barn to feed the stock. Once, the buggy fringe was missing some tassles, which the brothers speculated must have come lookse as the slaves either got in or out of the buggy during a hurried trip in the dead of night. Although the members of Daniel's household were aware that their father was connected with the underground in one way or another and often joked amongst themselves about it, there was never one word mentioned in the presence of their father or anyone outside the family group.

Daniel Young's feelings against slavery seem odd, considering that both his father's and mother's families owned slaves in Virginia before their migration to the north. Daniel's son, Joseph, also became at least an admirer of abolitionism, for he named his oldest son after Owen Lovejoy, an ardent abolitionist of the time. Lovejoy was an editor and publisher of a paper in a southern Illinois town; he was thrown into the Mississippi River by a mob, along with his printing press. Owen Young's mother told this fact to his younger brother, my father, during one of their solitary discussions while Martin was still living at home. It is quite probable that even my late uncle did not know how he came by the name Owen.

I am looking for lineage of Sy Young the baseball player, born circa 1869. In 1904 I believe he would have been 35 years old.

I am also looking for any information on a Giffin Young who married 6 Apr 1809 in NC a Rebecca Scott, daughter of John Scott b. 1725, d. 16 Aug 1816 in Rutherford Co, NC. He was married to Letitia Cleghorn. This is all I have on these two people. I do not have any dates on Giffin Young or Rebecca Scott. I did find a Noncuputive Will dated Oct 1827 in Rutherford Co, which only states that the land was his
